

FROZEN GRILLED SOY MEAT ( SOMEAT ABURIYAKI)

It took eight years to develop this product, and it has acquired the vegan certification mark. We take great care with the raw materials we use; the soy sauce is organic, the oil is rice bran oil, and everything is free from additives. The product is made using a unique manufacturing process to reproduce a meat-like texture. The soy sauce-based seasoning and the slight fragrant aroma of soy sauce is very appetizing.
